

Bristol Police Department

Bristol is a town in Addison County. The town was founded June 26, 1762. Main Street is home to most of the businesses of the town that give you the feel of small town life. There is also a town green where functions take place throughout the year. Bristol is also home to the Lord's Prayer Rock. Bristol is known as the "Gateway to the green mountains" because of its location near the first set of mountains from Lake Champlain. Bristol is the typical New England Town.

The Bristol Police Department was formed on May 9th 1903 with the appointment of Vernon Brooks as a Police Officer. The Bristol Police Department has a long history of protecting and serving their community. They are a full service law enforcement agency, providing 24 hour protection to our community and its residents. The dedicated officers of the Bristol Police Department are committed to providing quality service while working cooperatively with the community to enforce the laws, preserve peace, and provide a safe environment thus improving the quality of life of our residents and visitors.
