

Counselling Services of Addison County

Counselling Services of Addison County Serves adults, families and children who may have a diversity of needs, including emotional problems, family issues, substance abuse, serious mental illness, and developmental disabilities. In addition to its office-based services, the agency offers residential supports, employment services, adventure-based children's programs, alternative educational programs, and around the clock emergency response.

For More Information go to: <http://www.csac-vt.org/>